One BREEDSON, of Little Beaver lake near Red Deer lake, south of Battle river, who came from Nebraska last spring, brought a hive of bees with him. He now has three hives and they have a good store of honey for the winter.

By a printer's error in last issue the name of Miss Jennie Launder was omitted from the list of performers at Miss Phillip's annual reception. The solo which she played was the "Flower Song," a difficult and beautiful piece, which was excellently well rendered.

W. JOHNSTONE WALKER's auction sales closed on Tuesday evening last. Mr. Walker expects to leave for Liverpool on to-morrow's train and after visiting some time in England and Scotland, will go to South Africa, where he has interests. He will return to Edmonton next fall.

SCPT. WHYTE, of the C.P.R., Mr. Baker, manager of the Manitoba Northwestern, Mr. Cross, master mechanic on the western division of the C. P. R. and J. Niblock, superintendent of the western division of the C. P. R. arrived on Monday's train. On Tuesday morning Mayor McCauley drove the party from the station to and through Edmonton, and back again, the train being held for the party until ten o'clock. This was Mr. Baker's first visit to Edmonton. All the visitors remarked on the signs of progress visible everywhere. Mr. Whyte does not hold out much hope of improved train service on the C. & E. until times generally improve, but he thinks that the depression will begin to lift in the spring and that with the return of good times, improved service will be granted on this branch. At present the company finds it necessary to keep expenses down to the lowest possible point.

Messrs. J. E. Forslund and J. Toole, of the C. P. R. land department, have been making an extended tour through the Scandinavian and German settlements in Northern Alberta since their arrival last week. From Wetaskiwin they visited the Swedish settlement at Red Deer lake, south of Battle river, the German settlement at Bears' lake, southwest of Wetaskiwin, the new Norwegian settlements at the Crooked lake, northeast of Wetaskiwin and south of Beaver lake, the German settlement in the Beaver hills east of Fort Saskatchewan, the German settlements on Stony Plain, south of Rabbit hills and east and south of Leduc. They also visited the Parry Sound colony of Canadians, south of Fort Saskatchewan. They found the Parry Sound people well pleased and getting comfortably fixed, having had good crops. Also the German settlements east of Fort Saskatchewan, Stony Plain and south of Raabitt hill. These colonies have been established two and three years, and the people are contented and prosperous. The German settlement east of Leduc had good crops, but is newer, and some of the late settlers are very poor, but all will pull through. The Norwegian settlements are both from Minnesota and were only started last fall, but the settlers are well pleased with their prospects. The Swedish settlement at Red Deer lake, has not done as well as was hoped, as most of the settlers were from manufacturing towns in New England and to some extent unsuited to pioneer life. However, they are progressing and no doubt will be all right shortly.

T. W. LINES will ship a car of oats on tomorrow's train.

W. BLOSS, of Beaver lake, is in town, having come by way of Cooking lake.

MR. BROWN, of Beaver creek crossing, south of Beaver lake, cut several of his toes while chopping with an axe some time ago. He caught cold in the wound and for a time his condition was very critical, but he is now recovering.

There are no new developments regarding the municipal elections for councilors. Regarding the mayoralty, it is definitely announced that councilor J. A. McDougall will be a candidate, a requisition in his favor having been very largely signed.

The staff of teachers for the Edmonton public school engaged for the coming year are: Principal, Daniel Francis, of Penese, Assa; first assistant, E. J. Welburn, Edmonton; second assistant, Miss Taylor, Vienna, Ont.; primary, Miss Rogers of Assa.

J. LAFONDRE, of Beaver lake, suffered a very painful accident some weeks ago. He was breaking a small dry willow stick, when a sliver sprung off and struck the ball of one eye, penetrating about a quarter of an inch. The pain is lessening now, but he will likely lose the sight of that eye.

JUDGE ROULEAU was expected to arrive on Monday and hold the recount in the St. Albert election case on Tuesday. He did not get back to Calgary from attending the full court at Regina in time to catch Monday's train. He will be here to-night and the recount will be made to-morrow in Robertson hall, commencing at 10 o'clock.

D. W. DAVIS, M. P., arrived on Monday's train and is making enquiries regarding the alleged conflict of opinion as to the bridge site. He met the council of the board of trade on Tuesday evening in the Alberta hotel, and was formally assured that as far as the members of the board or the interests which they represented were concerned there was no conflict of opinion as to site.

Mr. Davis expressed himself as satisfied with the assurances received, and said there was no doubt that if the government could be satisfied that the lower location would be generally satisfactory, the work would be commenced this winter. Complete plans are prepared for a bridge at each crossing and the estimate of cost is practically the same. On Wednesday Mr. Davis, accompanied by John Cameron, president of the board of trade, visited St. Albert to ascertain the feeling in that locality, and particularly that of the mission authorities, who have been said to favor the upper site.

The first two numbers of the Calgary Daily Herald came to hand by Monday's mail. Evidently there is going to be competition in the newspaper business in Calgary. In its first announcement the Herald says: "That a place exists in this young city for one good daily newspaper is universally admitted, and it will be the aim of the Herald to fill that place." The Herald is a large daily, seven columns to the page, is well printed, the subscription is $6 per year for the daily delivered in town. In view of the approaching Dominion elections the following statement signed by both proprietors is significant: "It appears there is an impression existing in Calgary that the Herald has been secured for the purpose of forwarding the political interests of one of the proprietors. This is entirely erroneous. Mr. Magrath may or may not have political aspirations. That has nothing to do with this paper. We endeavored to make clear in our prospectus that this is purely a business venture, and as we are looking for legitimate newspaper business the columns of the Herald will be open to all for a fair discussion of any subject of interest to the reading public."

The finishing touches are being given to the inside work of the new clerical residence at St. Joachim's mission, Edmonton, on the corner of Victoria avenue and Ninth street. The building is 45x40, being two and a half stories high and the rear part 15x20, one story high. The building is of brick veneer resting on a stone foundation and is of handsome design. The basement contains the furnace which heats the whole building with hot air, and also the storage of coal and wood. The main entrance to the building is in the centre of the front, by a porch which is the base of a square tower which runs up the full height of the building and is surmounted by a large cross. The porch opens into a wide hall which extends to the rear of the building. On the right hand side of the entrance is the office of Rev. Father Lacombe, and connected with it is his bed room. On the opposite side of the hall is the Bishop's room, for his use when he visits the mission, and next to it is the library. Connected with the library on the same side of the hall is the dining room. Opposite the dining room across the hall is the kitchen. The stairs to the upper flat start from the right hand side of the hall. The upper flat is also divided by a wide central hall, with three bed rooms on one side and one bedroom and a private chapel on the other. The third story is yet unfinished but will contain five bed rooms when completed. The walls inside are plastered and the ceilings and finishings throughout are of British Columbia cedar and fir. The building is airy and well lighted throughout, and reflects great credit on the contractor, Alfred Burke. The cost will be about $2,400 when finished.

DR. TOFIELD, of Beaver lake, is in town. R. SECORD purchased a $366 lot of fur from E. Brousseau of St. Albert this week.

ONE car oats to Calgary and one to New Westminster, were the shipments last train.

JAS. WALSH purchased $310 worth of fur this week, of which $154 worth came from British Columbia.

CHRISTMAS tree entertainments will be held in the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist Sunday schools in town on Monday next, Christmas eve.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, DECEMBER 20th, 1894.

THE NEW PREMIER.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell is probably the most generally acceptable member of the late ministry for the position of premier, and his selection by Lord Aberdeen will no doubt be generally satisfactory. He is an old man, over 70, and has been in public life for many years, during a great part of which he has filled important cabinet positions. The most important of these was the customs, of which department he was the head for many years. Although this department offers probably greater opportunities for dishonesty than any other, there is no charge that Mr. Bowell ever made a cent out of it. His only fault was that he was too exacting and too prone to regard as a thief every importer with whom his department had dealings. His qualities were rather those of a good servant than of a successful master, and it is scarcely likely that he will be able to hold the party together as successfully as his predecessors. There are too many of them looking for boodle and he will be twice stingy with it. As confidence in the strength and respect for the abilities of the leader decreases unrest in the party increases. It is quite likely that Mr. Bowell's premiership will be short and troubled. The old line conservatives—the once when right and twice when wrong—the anything to get there fellows—and the young ones who have been educated in their traditions, have been rather held in check for the past year or two. They are getting restive. They want more of the old flag, the old policy and the old plunder than they have been getting. These are the men who want Sir Charles Tupper or the Hon. John Haggart as premier. And it is not likely that, high as Mr. Bowell's merits no doubt are, his abilities are equal to the task of keeping them in line. The only thing that will keep them in order is the knowledge that there is a strong and active opposition, which would be placed in power by disunion among them, and with which they would have less chance for a grab than even with Mr. Bowell. Great changes may be expected in Canadian politics within the next few years. Old issues and old leaders have passed away and there is now beginning a process of adjustment of the politics of the country to the conditions of the country, which will no doubt result in good to the country, although it may not be as apparently beneficial to many of the politicians now in active life.

THE NEW CABINET.

On Friday, Dec. 14th, after consulting Senator Frank Smith, Lord Aberdeen called upon Hon Senator Bowell to assume the premiership and form a cabinet. The task was accepted, but the result has not yet been announced. There is little doubt that should Senator Bowell succeed in forming a strong cabinet there will be no election until after next session of parliament. On the other hand if he cannot form a cabinet or if the cabinet formed is not strong there will almost certainly be an immediate election. It is said that some Ontario conservatives advocate the claims of Hon. John Haggart, and it is certain that Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's views will have to be considered. Sir Charles Tupper has been spoken of by many papers, but he does not seem to have found favor in Ottawa. It is likely that the members of the late cabinet will take office under Mr. Bowell, but there are several new aspirants for positions. Dr. Montague's friends are anxious to see him in office and the friends of Mr. Kenny of Halifax are pushing his claims. It is said that Sir Adolph Caron aspires to the leadership of the commons. Angers will probably be minister of justice. The other positions will probably remain as they are. The Mail has made a severe attack on Bowell which is supposed to indicate that Clarke Wallace is opposed to his elevation. There is a possibility that he may fail to form a cabinet.

DEATH OF SIR JOHN THOMPSON.

The death of Sir John Thompson took place on Wednesday, December 12th, shortly after noon. Sir John had gone to Windsor Castle in the forenoon to be sworn in as a member of the Imperial privy council. He was about to sit down to luncheon with his fellow members when he complained of illness and retired to the waiting room adjoining. Medical help was sent for and was promptly in attendance, but he died in a few minutes. He had been feeling poorly for some months and had been advised that his health was in a precarious condition. He was anxious to know the fact from the public for the time being, which is how his death was so generally unexpected. The cause of death was heart disease. Sir John was not a rich man at the time of his death and as a consequence his family are unprovided for. A memorial subscription has been started for Lady Thompson and her children and a liberal response is being made. Two sons of Sir John are articled in Toronto in the law offices of B. B. Osler and G. T. Blackstock respectively, and a daughter is at school in Paris. The body of the dead premier is being brought to Halifax for interment by the British ship of war, Blenheim, a mark of unusual respect on the part of the Imperial government.

GENERAL NEWS.

W. A. Hunt is now editor and manager of the Moosomin Spectator, vice J. J. Young, promoted to the Calgary Herald.

W. Ogilvie, D. L. S., left Victoria for Alaska on Monday, Dec. 10. The object of the trip is to find a convenient means of access for the force of Mounted Police to be sent into the Yukon country.

Battleford Herald: One night last week a big bull moose entered Wm. Dewan's barn-yard on the outskirts of Battleford South. There being no firearms on the place the strange visitor took a leisurely view of the place and as leisurely left his departure.

Belgian officials at Antwerp report that they have discovered the presence of pleuro-pneumonia among Canadian cattle which have been landed at that port from Montreal. The Canadian government officials here are sending a veterinary surgeon to Antwerp to-night to report whether the cattle affected are really Canadian cattle, and whether it is pleuro-pneumonia from which animals are suffering. If the disease is confirmed as pleuro-pneumonia the probable result will be that British ports will remain closed against Canadian cattle next season.

A copy of the Slocan Times a beautifully printed small weekly paper published at New Denver, B. C., in the very best and newest part of the silver mining region is to hand. The following is from its editorial columns: "It is very pleasant to have Mr. F. C. Cotton of Vancouver doing his level best to bark the legislation we most desire. He got up on his hind legs and talked about freedom of contract, that old stock argument responsible for killing the best, and perpetuating the worst legislation in every country under heaven for the last fifty years. If freedom of contract is to mean workmen starving for weeks with non-negotiable time checks in their pockets we do not want any of it. We will get along with a little less of that freedom which simply means permission to the man with the long purse to cinch up the man with the strong arm."

The Mayoralty.

We, the undersigned, ratepayers of the Town of Edmonton, request that Dr. J. C. Wilson be selected for nomination for the office of Mayor and hereby pledge our support to him in the event of an election:

EDMONTON.

The resident population of the town of Edmonton as per revised census is 1,267. That of South Edmonton, within the limits of the surveyed town site, as per police census, is 371, making the total population of Edmonton and South Edmonton 1,638. Considered as one town, which as regards the general business of the country they are, they have the third if not the second largest population of any town in the Territories and stand second if not first in commercial importance.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.

Passed by Sturgeon Council Royal Temperance of Temperance:

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in his mysterious providence, to call unto himself the mother of our sisters Miss Jessie and Miss Maggie Wilson and of our brothers Thomas and Andrew Wilson also sister Mrs. Andrew Wilson, we the members of Sturgeon Council No. 22, R. T. of T. both individually and as a council, extend to our bereaved sisters and brothers our heartfelt sympathy with them in their severe affliction.

But in a bereavement so deep, so sudden, so unexpected, we know that human words, human sympathy, human comfort, are not enough to heal the spirits so deeply wounded, or to bind up the hearts pierced by so deep and so sudden a stroke.

And therefore we pray earnestly that God himself, who has given and who has taken away may be their stay and comforter, we pray that he may comfort their hearts with the great hope—which he alone can give—the hope of meeting their loved one again in Heaven where there is no parting.

We trust that their strong and sufficient comfort may be in that Christ who came to earth, to show the way to Heaven, and whose call to suffering souls was "Come unto me all ye that labour—"

(see Matthew xi, 28, 29, 30).

LACOMBE LINKS.

The Methodist social on Wednesday last, was a very successful affair; the ladies having realized some $25 thereby.

The gospel temperance meeting which was held in the Methodist church as a union service on last Sabbath evening brought a large number of people, the seats being nearly filled. The addresses given by the pastors as well as the laymen, were to the point. Such meetings will be the means of much good by bringing the people to realize the position they hold in connection with the liquor traffic in this place as well as in general.

We again remind our friends of the electionary entertainment to be given by Mr. Elmer Bruce on Christmas night for the benefit of the ladies aid of the Presbyterian church. Also the Sunday school social and entertainment on Christmas.

Mr. McDonald is chopping a good deal of wood since winter has set in. By next fall a good grist mill would pay in this place.

SIR JOHN THOMPSON.

No further particulars respecting the death of Sir John Thompson were received by last mail. The following short sketch of his career is taken from the Calgary Daily Tribune of Thursday last: Sir John Sparrow David Thompson, K. C., M. G., P. C., was the son of Mr. John Sparrow Thompson, a native of Waterford, Ireland, who was at one time Queen's Printer, and afterwards supt. of the money order system in Nova Scotia. Sir John was born in Halifax, N. S., Nov. 10th, 1844, and educated at the common school and free church academy there. He was called to the Nova Scotia bar in 1865 and appointed a Queen's counsel in 1879. He acted as a counsel on behalf of the U. S. government before the fishery commission which sat at Halifax under the Washington treaty. He was appointed attorney general of Nova Scotia in 1878 and was prime minister of that province for two months in 1882, when he became a judge of the supreme court. In 1885 he was returned to the Dominion house and was appointed minister of justice and attorney general of Canada the same year. He assisted the British representations on the fishery commission of Washington in 1887 in Paris and was created a K.C. M. G. for his services. On the death of Sir John Abbott Sir John Thompson succeeded to the position of prime minister and leader of the conservative party, keeping the portfolio of minister of justice. He represented Antigonish, N. S., in the Dominion house.

The December number of The Canadian Magazine is an admirable one, copiously illustrated and varied in interest. It is one of the best of the holiday numbers. It contains no fewer than over seventy illustrations, mostly the work of leading Canadian artists, in Toronto and New York. Amongst the leading articles are "John Brown in Canada," an able article full of research, and illustrated by J. C. Hamilton; "The Thousand Isles," charmingly written and illustrated by Frederic W. Falle; "Toronto Art Students' League," a sketch of the interior life of an art club, by R. Holmes, illustrated by over forty drawings by members of the club. H. T. Mullen of Montreal contributes an illustrated article on "Sport in Troubadour Land"; Geo. H. Bradbury writes ably on Hudson's Bay; Gordon Rogers charmingly tells a queer November experience in duck-hunting, and Edgar Bevis gives a graphic "Yarn in the Dog Watch," entitled "Shanghai." Altogether, the number is a very satisfactory one and will be highly appreciated by its readers. Published by the Ontario Publishing Co. Ltd., Toronto. $2.50 per annum.

A HANDBOME lower cornice has been fitted on the Jacques Cartier bank building, by Ross Bros.

THE Hudson's Bay Company's town store will be kept open in the evening until nine o'clock until after the holidays.

GRAIN deliveries continue brisk in town. Oats have risen to 22c for the best feed quality and 23c for milling; barley 23c feed to 28c malting; wheat 38c to 45c.

THE public schools will close for the holidays on Friday evening. There will be short programmes in the afternoon in the several departments of the school.

J. LAUDER's bake shop on Fraser avenue was broken into last night and two large Christmas cakes taken. Entrance was made through a window. The thief has not yet been located.

HON. THOS. COCHRANE, of Cochrane, west of Calgary, came to Lacombe on last train and is expected to arrive in Edmonton tonight. Mr. Cochrane is spoken of as a probable candidate for the Commons at the next Dominion election.

Last night J. A. McDougall's warehouse was broken into and a tub of butter and pail of candies taken. A half breed named Schultz, who lives in ten near the H. B. fort, was arrested by the police this forenoon and when charged with the offence, admitted his guilt.

REV. A. YOUNG of North Bay, Ont., who visited the Parry Sound settlers last fall, has given his views in regard to the progress and prospects of the colony to the public, and they are printed for distribution on a very neat little C. P. R. leaflet. He says: "In conclusion I will add that without a doubt the move from Parry Sound district to Alberta has proved a grand one for those who availed themselves of it. The only wonder to me is that with such a fine agricultural country awaiting them, any of those left behind can content themselves."

A GLOVE contest between two toughs named respectively Cuff and White, took place in Robertson hall on Monday night. The hall was crowded. The glove contest became a fight from the start and Cuff had one wrist broken. At the fourth round White failed to come to time. The police ordered the fight to stop and there was much disputing about the payment of bets. Such exhibitions are something new in Edmonton and are a disgrace which should not be tolerated. Men who attempt to make their living by giving exhibitions of this kind are no use to town or country. There is no room here for the display of their peculiar talents and they should be gently but firmly instructed by the proper authorities to move on.

A MASS for the repose of the soul of the late premier, Sir John Thompson, was celebrated at St. Joachim's mission at 9 o'clock this morning by Rev. Father Lacombe, an old and intimate friend of the dead premier. The interior of the building was draped in yellow and black, the colors of mourning in the Catholic church, and the mournful effect was heightened by the darkening of the windows. Bishop Grandin presided over the religious ceremony, and was accompanied by several of his clergy from St. Albert. There was a large attendance, including a number of protestants. After the service and before the "libra" His Lordship in French gave a short funeral address in which he dwelt feelingly on the virtues of the dead premier. Rev. Father Lacombe then addressed the congregation in English, taking for his text these words from Ecclesiastes, "Let us praise men of renown." He spoke of Sir John Thompson as a true citizen, being faithful to his Christian duty, to his sovereign and to his country. Death came to him at the moment of his attaining the highest honors, bringing forcibly to mind the words "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." The death of Sir John Thompson was a great lesson that we must be always ready to appear before the supreme judge. The singing was by the ladies and gentlemen of the choir of St. Joachim's church.
